Henderson Gartmore Fund

Japan Absolute Return Fund

Class R¥ Acc ISIN: LU0201075024

A sub-fund of Henderson Gartmore Fund, a self-managed SICAV.

Objectives and investment policy

Objective

An absolute (more than zero) return over the long term although an absolute return performance is not guaranteed.

Investment policy

Under normal circumstances, the Fund invests mainly in:

- Shares of or derivatives of shares of Japanese companies. The Fund takes long positions on shares it believes are promising (meaning that the Fund will gain to the extent these share prices rise) and takes short positions in shares it believes are likely to decline in price (meaning the Fund will gain to the extent these share prices fall).

The Fund may also invest in:

- Any other type of security that is consistent with its objective
- Money market instruments
- Bank deposits
- Collective Investment Schemes

In choosing investments, the investment manager looks for companies which have the potential to increase or decrease in price more over the long term than is currently reflected in market prices.

The Fund makes extensive use of investment techniques, particularly those that involve derivatives, to obtain both its long and short investment exposure.

Designed for Investors who understand the Fund's risks and complex investment approach, would like an absolute return investment and intend to invest their money for at least five years.

Terms to understand

Derivatives Financial instruments whose value is linked to the price of an underlying asset (eg indices, rates, share prices).

Money market instruments Liquid investments that pay interest and are designed to maintain a stable value.

Shares Securities that represent fractional ownership in a company.

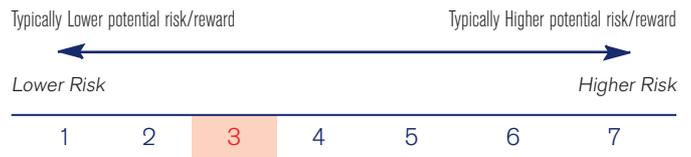

Short Position Taking a negative view on a security to profit from a fall in its price.

Volatility How sharply the Fund's share price has gone up and down over a period, generally several years.

You can buy, sell or switch shares in the Fund on any business day, as defined within the "Glossary" Section, of the Fund's prospectus.

The Fund offers accumulation shares (shares in which net income is retained within the price).

Risk and reward profile

The value of an investment in the Fund can go up or down. When you sell your shares they may be worth less than you paid for them.

The risk/reward rating above is based on medium-term volatility. In the future, the Fund's actual volatility could be higher or lower and its rated risk/reward level could change.

The Fund's risk level reflects the following:

- The Fund focuses on a single country
- As a category, shares are more volatile than either bonds or money market instruments
- The Fund's short exposures mean it can lose money if certain shares rise in price
- Fluctuations in exchange rates may cause the value of your investment to rise or fall

The rating does not reflect the possible effects of unusual market conditions or large unpredictable events which could amplify everyday risk and trigger other risks such as:

Counterparty risk The Fund could lose money if an entity with which it interacts becomes unwilling or unable to meet its obligations to the Fund.

Default risk The issuers of certain bonds could become unable to make payments on their bonds.

Derivatives risk Certain derivatives could behave unexpectedly or could expose the Fund to losses that are significantly greater than the cost of the derivative.

Liquidity risk Certain securities could become hard to value or sell at a desired time and price.

Management risk Investment management techniques that have worked well in normal market conditions could prove ineffective or detrimental at other times.

The full list of the Fund's risks are contained in the "Investment and Risk Considerations" section of the Fund's prospectus.
